The Contractor shall take all necessary measures that continuously guarantee the level of safety on Decathlon's premises (or in its stores).

5.4. In performing the Services, the Contractor shall comply with the applicable laws and regulations in the area of employment conditions and the CLA applicable to it and its employees. The Contractor shall record all agreements relating to employment conditions, so that the Services can be performed in a clear and accessible manner. Upon request and without delay, the Contractor shall allow the competent authorities to access these employment conditions, and shall cooperate in any checks, audits or wage inspections. Upon request, the Contractor shall allow Decathlon immediate access to the above-mentioned employment conditions if Decathlon deems it necessary in connection with the prevention or handling of a wage claim regarding work performed in the context of the Services.

6.1. All items, information and data made available to the Contractor by Decathlon, in whatever form, regardless of the manner in which they were used or stored, are and remain Decathlon's property.

6.2. The intellectual property rights to all results, deliverables, materials, presentations, reports, concepts, ideas, data, documentation, designs, and content (including, but not limited to, photographic, sound, and video material, including raw shot materials) produced by or on behalf of the Contractor in connection with the execution of the Agreement and the Services performed thereunder on Decathlon's instructions, in any form whatsoever, hereinafter collectively referred to as "Content", including database rights that are exercisable with respect to the Content, shall be vested in and accrue to Decathlon. Pursuant to the Agreement, these intellectual property rights and database rights shall be transferred by the Contractor to Decathlon at the moment they are created, and Decathlon accepts the transfer now for that point in the future.

6.3. To the extent that an additional deed is necessary at any moment for the transfer of the rights referred to in article 6.2, the Contractor irrevocably authorises Decathlon, now for that point in the future, to draw up such a deed and co-sign it on the Contractor's behalf, without prejudice to the Contractor's obligation to cooperate in the transfer of these rights at Decathlon's first request, without being able to impose conditions in this regard. The Contractor guarantees that it can transfer these rights.

6.4. If there is a difference of opinion between the Parties concerning the intellectual property rights and database rights referred to in Article 6.2 regarding the results of the Services performed, it shall be assumed, barring evidence in rebuttal, that such rights belong to Decathlon. In all cases, Decathlon may continue to use the outcome of the results intended by the Agreement.

6.5. The Contractor guarantees that Decathlon can make unimpeded use of the Content created, produced and/or delivered under the Agreement.

6.6. The Contractor hereby waives all so-called moral rights vis-à-vis Decathlon to which the Contractor may be entitled as referred to in the Copyright Act, to the extent that the applicable regulations permit such a waiver. The Contractor, duly authorised in this regard, also waives any and all moral rights vis-à-vis Decathlon to which the Contractor may be entitled on behalf of its personnel or assistants, to the extent that the applicable regulations permit such a waiver.

6.7. The Contractor shall not use the information and data provided to it, as well as the Content, for purposes other than for the execution of the Agreement and shall not, except with Decathlon's explicit and written consent, reproduce them, in whole or in part, in any manner whatsoever, make them available to third parties or make them available to third parties for inspection.

6.8. The Contractor guarantees vis-à-vis Decathlon that the Services provided, the Content and the use thereof do not infringe any intellectual or industrial property right or database right belonging to a third party, and shall indemnify Decathlon for any claims and damages in this respect.

Article 7. Confidentiality and handling of confidential information

7.1. The Contractor undertakes to keep secret all confidential information received from Decathlon in connection with the performance of the Agreement. If the Parties have entered into a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA), the provisions of Article 7 of these Terms and Conditions shall apply in addition to the provisions of the NDA.

7.2. Confidential information shall in any case mean: all data of which the Contractor should reasonably be aware that it is confidential in nature, which shall in any case include: (i) the information indicated by Decathlon as being confidential; (ii) all non-publicly available information relating to Decathlon, including but not limited to operational, performance and cost information.

7.3. The confidentiality obligation in article 7.1 of these Terms and Conditions shall not apply if the Contractor is required to divulge information pursuant to the law, by virtue of obligations vis-à-vis a tax authority, supervisory authority or competent court, and in the context of legal proceedings or other proceedings between the Parties. The Contractor shall, to the extent permitted by law, inform Decathlon in advance in writing before making any such disclosure.

7.4. At Decathlon's request, the Contractor shall make all confidential information obtained under the Agreement available to Decathlon in a usable format within five (5) calendar days. If Decathlon has supplied confidential information to the Contractor in electronic form, the Contractor shall return such confidential information in the same manner. If Decathlon requests that the Confidential Information be destroyed, the Contractor is prohibited from keeping a copy, summary or part of the Confidential Information in any form whatsoever, unless a legal obligation to store it specifically prevents this. In such cases, the Contractor shall inform Decathlon which information it is, for how long and in what manner this information is stored.

Article 8. Personal Data

8.1. In performing its obligations in the context of the Offer, Purchase Order and/or Agreement, the Contractor shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations as regards handling and protecting personal data, in particular those from the General Data Protection Regulation.

8.2. If it transpires that the Contractor processes personal data on behalf of Decathlon, the Parties shall, at Decathlon's first request, sign a Data Processing Agreement (DPA) in accordance with Decathlon's model.

Article 9. Security

9.1. The Contractor guarantees that data and information are properly secured, in particular with regard to confidential information and personal data, exchanged by Parties. The Contractor guarantees that these are not accessible to third parties.

9.2. Insofar as the Services are provided by or on behalf of the Contractor by means of a platform or website, the Contractor shall ensure that its own systems, as well as the systems or solutions on which the platform or website operates, are secured. In performing the Agreement, the Contractor shall comply with Decathlon's Security Insurance Plan (SIP) and the security standards included therein, which shall be sent to the Contractor and attached to the Agreement. For the purchase of ICT services, including the purchase of platform and/or SaaS and/or similar services, Decathlon applies ICT purchasing conditions, which will be made available to the Contractor separately.

Article 10. Invoicing and payment of fee

10.1. The fee payable by Decathlon to the Contractor is specified in the Contract. The fee is in euros, exclusive of sales tax, and includes all costs necessary for the Contractor to fulfil its obligations, including any government deductions, levies, premiums and other taxes due.

10.2. The agreed fee is fixed unless the Parties have agreed otherwise in writing.

10.3. Invoices are subject to a payment term of thirty (30) days after receipt of a correct invoice. If Decathlon so requests, the Contractor shall send the documents on which the invoice is based.

10.4. Invoices must comply with the stipulations of the Law on Sales Tax of 1968 and in the Agreement.

10.5. Invoices must be sent in PDF format to boekhouding.nl@decathlon.com F.A.O Decathlon Netherlands B.V., Hoogoorddreef 15 Gebouw Amerika, 1101 BA Amsterdam, quoting the purchase order number. The Agreement must contain the following details of the Contractor: company name, address, Chamber of Commerce number, VAT number, bank account number, telephone number and e-mail address.

10.6. In the event of non-compliance with Articles 10.4. and 10.5. of these Terms and Conditions, Decathlon will not process the invoice and will suspend payment. Payment of an invoice does not mean that Decathlon has accepted the Services and does not imply a waiver of rights.

10.7. If Decathlon does not pay (the non-disputed part of) an invoice on time, this shall not entitle the Contractor to suspend or terminate the delivery of the Services. In the event of late payment of a non-disputed invoice, the Contractor shall first send Decathlon a written reminder, in which Decathlon is given the opportunity to still pay within a reasonable time.

10.8. The amount of the sums to be paid to the Contractor shall be those in Decathlon's administrative files, unless the Contractor proves that these files are incorrect.

10.9. Decathlon shall be entitled to suspend its (payment) obligations if the Contractor has not correctly complied with the Agreement or if Decathlon has a reasonable suspicion to assume that there is an impending situation of non-compliance on the part of the Contractor.

10.10. If Decathlon makes advance payments, the Contractor is obliged to establish a bank guarantee or other security at Decathlon's first request.

10.11. Decathlon is entitled to set off claims of the Contractor against Decathlon against claims of Decathlon against the Contractor, and these claims do not have to be connected with each other.

10.12. The Contractor is prohibited from assigning or pledging claims. This provision has property law consequences.

Article 11. Term and dissolution

11.1. The term is indicated in the Agreement. If no term is stipulated in the Agreement, and the contract pertains to the provision of continuous Services, it shall be deemed to have been entered into for a maximum of one year.

11.2. After expiry of the (initial) term of the Agreement, the Agreement shall terminate by operation of law.

11.3. Decathlon shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement (prematurely) at any moment and without justification, and without due observance of a notice period, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing. Settlement shall then take place between Decathlon and the Contractor on the basis of the Services rendered by the Contractor with respect to the performance of the Contract. Decathlon does not have to compensate the Contractor in any other way for the consequences of terminating the Agreement.

11.4. The Contractor shall only be entitled to suspend its obligations after sending a letter of formal notice in which Decathlon is offered at least a period of thirty (30) days to still fulfil the obligations incumbent on it.

11.5. Decathlon shall be entitled to fully or partially dissolve the Agreement in writing and without prior letter of formal notice or notification, with immediate effect if:

- a. the Contractor fails to comply with one or more of its obligations, and fulfilment thereof is no longer possible, including missing final delivery terms;
- b. there is no situation under Article 11.5 (a) above and the Contractor, after having been given a prior letter of formal notice and the opportunity to comply, still fails to fulfil its obligations under the Agreement;
- c. Decathlon has reasons to believe that the Contractor is not or will not be able or willing to fulfil its obligations;
- d. the Contractor's assets are seized, the Contractor has applied for a suspension of payments, is in a situation of requiring a suspension of payments, has filed for bankruptcy, is in a state of bankruptcy, proceeds to liquidate its business or ceases its activities or appears insolvent in any way;

- e. changes occur in the ownership or management situation at the Contractor, including mergers and acquisitions.

11.6. In the event of dissolution, the Contractor is obliged to immediately reimburse all costs already incurred by Decathlon, without prejudice to Decathlon's right to claim full damages. At Decathlon's first request, the Contractor shall also reimburse all sums that have already been paid by Decathlon.

11.7. Provisions that by their nature are intended to continue even after the expiry of the Agreement shall retain their effect thereafter. Such provisions shall in any case include those relating to warranty, liability, intellectual property rights, confidentiality, disputes and applicable law.

Article 12. Continuity

12.1. In the event of suspension and/or termination of the Contract, on whatever grounds, it is essential for Decathlon and the Contractor that the termination should not have any adverse consequences for Decathlon's continuity and the quality of the services provided to Decathlon customers. The Contractor shall perform all necessary work to ensure a proper transition of the Services to Decathlon or a third party to be appointed by Decathlon in such a way that this does not affect or jeopardise Decathlon's business processes.

Article 13. Liability

13.1. The Contractor is liable for any damage incurred by Decathlon or a third party attributable to the Contractor's failure to fulfil, or incorrectly fulfil, the obligations under the Agreement.

13.2. If the Contractor uses items owned by the Client to perform the Services, the Contractor shall be liable for the loss or theft thereof and the damage caused to such items.

13.3. The Contractor is obliged to take out and maintain insurance in a suitable and customary manner in terms of industry standards, for the risks arising from or related to the Agreement. As proof that such insurance has been taken out, the Contractor shall forward a copy of the policy or proof of insurance to Decathlon upon first request.

Article 14. Force majeure

14.2. If a Party is unable to perform or fails to perform its obligations under the Agreement for a period of more than thirty days as a result of force majeure, the other Party shall be entitled to dissolve the Agreement (in whole or in part) out of court, with immediate effect by registered letter and without any right to compensation.

14.3. Force majeure does not include: staff undercapacity or illness at the Contractor, strikes, blockades or work-to-rule, transport snags, attributable failure in the performance of third party(ies) relied upon by the Contractor, shortage or unsuitability of materials, theft, flooding, government actions, liquidity or solvency problems at the Contractor, the inability of the Contractor to obtain any required permit or permission from the government and/or interruptions in networks used by the Contractor.
