

HAMAX recalls BABY SEAT HAMAX BUDDY

Product name and article codes : BABY SEAT HAMAX BUDDY
4091054 / 8591602

EAN code.- 70297755203498

Date of Manufacturing concerned: from 01/01/2022 to 06/08/2026.

Why is this product dangerous?

It has been identified that the label may not be securely attached. As a result, there is a risk that a child could detach the label from the harness strap. If the label becomes detached, it may present a choking hazard.

What should I do?

If you purchased this product between 01/01/2022 et le 06/08/2026. You are therefore concerned by the information below.

To eliminate this risk, the textile label must be completely removed from the harness strap. We ask that you cut off the label.

Once the label is removed, the identified choking hazard is eliminated and the seat can continue to be used as intended.

If there is no label on your product, you are not affected by this recall. The product can be used in complete safety.
